

PROCESS

SECOND SKIN

Architecture and fashion have been long recognised as kissing cousins; building stories through the weaving of space, the warping of proportions, and the bending of perspectives.

As a pre-cursor to Melbourne International Fashion Week, March Process looks to those who look at wearing space.

How can the manufacture of materials imbed the stories of our culture?

How do we distort our own architectures with the tool of our second skin - our clothes?
