ART & ARCH

This month Process falls on World Architecture Day and the flavour of the day is Art and Architecture.

The evening of the 7th will examine some of the ways in which architecture is imagined and interpreted through the lens of the artist, the architect as artist, and the architect in collaboration. How do the disciplines inform each other? What are the boundaries and how do they blur? Are they that different after all?

Join us in exploring spatial representations through various mediums, processes and practices.
