

PATHWAYS TO WORKING IN THE HUMANITARIAN SECTOR

architectswithoutfrontiers
australia

AN INTRODUCTORY COURSE FOR BUILT ENVIRONMENT PROFESSIONALS

Ever wondered if you could design a refugee camp for 10,000 people? Or how to apply your skills to the Humanitarian Sector?

WHAT ARE THE AIMS OF THE COURSE?

Architects without Frontiers (AWF) and the Australian Red Cross are offering an introductory course for design and construction professionals interested in working in the humanitarian sector.

WHO IS THIS COURSE AIMED AT?

This course is aimed at mid-career design and construction professionals.

DATE

13th & 14th October 2012

LOCATION

Australian Red Cross offices, Melbourne

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

We are committed to assisting built environment professionals gain skills and capabilities in the Humanitarian Sector. This course offers CPD points with the Australian Institute of Architects Refuel program.

COST

$950 for the two day course (max 25 participants).

TO BOOK SIMPLY EMAIL TRAINING@ARCHITECTSWITHOUTFRONTIERS.COM.AU

ARUP

Refuel
CPD provider network

RMIT UNIVERSITY

World Vision

Habitat for Humanity Australia

engineers
without borders
AUSTRALIA

emergency architects
australia

Red Cross AUSTRALIA

the power of humanity

ARCHITECTSWITHOUTFRONTIERS.COM.AU